THE TEACHERS/ADJUDICATORS

JILL OGAI - CLASSICAL

Jill began ballet at the age of 4 in Sydney, before moving to Adelaide when she was 10. There, she trained under Sheila Laing and Elaine Cherry, whilst also attending the Australian Ballet School's 'ITP' program. At 14 she auditioned successfully for the Australian Ballet School, and began her 4 years of full time training in Melbourne.

In 2012 she joined the Australian Ballet Company as a member of the Corps de Ballet, and since she has been promoted to Coryphee and then to the rank of Soloist. Some of her career highlights include dancing Princess Florine (Bluebird) in David McAllister's 'The Sleeping Beauty', Clara in 'The Nutcracker', and a pas de deux called 'Unspoken Dialogues' with principal artist Kevin Jackson in New York in 2019.

She also has a keen interest in choreography, having choreographed on fellow dancers and herself for two 'Bodytorque' seasons.

In 2019 she also won the Telstra Ballet Dancer 'Rising Star' Award. Jill loves both classical and contemporary styles of dance, and admires dancers who are versatile and hard working.

She is inspired by dancers Mikhail Barishnikov, Dorotheé Gilbert and Sara Mearns as well as athletes Cathy Freeman, Serena Williams and Raphael Nadal
